

BYLAWS
OF
NUCLEAR MEDICINE TECHNOLOGIST OF TENNESSEE, INC.
(A Tennessee Not-For-Profit Corporation)

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the NMTT, Inc. shall be to promote communication and dissemination of knowledge; to promote continued education and research in the field of Nuclear Medicine Technology through meetings and other activities; and to promote the development and identification of Nuclear Medicine Technology as a profession. The NMTT, Inc. shall assist technologists in forming local Organizations.

ARTICLE I.
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1.1. Membership in the Nuclear Medicine Technologist of Tennessee, Inc. (hereinafter "NMTT" or the "society") will be open to all technologists, who can provide evidence of training and/or experience in nuclear medicine technology satisfactory to the Membership Committee of the NMTT. In making its judgments, the Committee will take into consideration the following evidence:

- a. Satisfactory completion of, and graduation from, an accredited formal training program in nuclear medicine technology.
- b. Certification or registration by a recognized board or registry of nuclear medicine technology.
- c. Other types of experience gained in nuclear medicine technology or in a related field may be considered, provided the Committee feels the applicant possesses sufficient interest and experience to make a positive contribution to the aims and objectives of the NMTT.

Section 1.2. Members of the NMTT

MEMBERS pay dues, receive official publications of the NMTT, have the right to vote in all issues presented to the membership, and may serve on the council or as an officer of the NMTT.

Section 1.3. Additionally the NMTT shall maintain a category of affiliation: Members-In-Training.

- a. STUDENT AFFILIATES/MEMBERS-IN-TRAINING are persons enrolled in a training program in nuclear medicine technology. Members in this category will pay no dues, have no voting privileges, and may hold appointive office only.

Section 1.4. Applicants will submit an official application along with the dues to the Membership Committee for review and recommendation. When duly recommended by the Membership Committee, applicants will become members.

Section 1.5. Appeal for revision of membership status shall be made to the Membership Committee by the person involved.

Section 1.6. Membership will be renewed annually upon payment of dues in November. Members in arrears for dues shall not vote, hold office, or be entitled to receive reports of the transactions of the NMTT. Members can be reinstated upon payment of dues for the year in which membership is requested.

ARTICLE II. OFFICERS AND COUNSEL

Section 2.1. The officers of the NMTT shall be President, President-Elect, Treasurer, and Secretary. Except for the Treasurer, these officers shall be elected annually by the membership. The Treasurer shall be elected for a two year term. All officers shall be installed at the annual business meeting.

Section 2.2. A term of elective office is defined as the period between the installation of officers at each annual business meeting.

Section 2.3. The President shall preside at all NMTT board meetings. The President shall appoint auditors, tellers, and other persons necessary to conduct business. He shall also appoint committee chairmen. He will also be an ex-officio member of all committees, except the Nominating Committee. He shall be responsible for all matters, stated or implied, that are related to the safety, stature, and proper operation of the NMTT. With the consent of a majority of the executive council, he may act in an emergency without a general meeting. The President will represent Tennessee on the Council of the Technologist Section of the Southeastern Chapter Society of Nuclear Medicine.

Section 2.4. The President-Elect shall familiarize himself with all activities of the NMTT. He shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees except the Nominating Committee. The President-Elect will be appointed alternate representative to the Southeastern Chapter Technologist Section Council. He shall succeed to the Presidency at the next annual business meeting.

Section 2.5. The Treasurer will compile a membership roster, notify membership of dues obligations, receive and dispense funds. He must also submit a complete written report at the annual business meeting.

Section 2.6. The Secretary shall keep minutes of all business meetings, preserve records, and notify membership of meetings. The Secretary must submit a complete written report at the annual business meeting.

Section 2.7. The Historian shall be appointed by the President for a term of one (1) year. The Historian shall maintain the scrap book and serve as depository for all historical documents pertaining to the NMTT.

Section 2.8. The NMTT President may, if necessary, appoint an assistant to the Treasurer. The Assistant Treasurer shall be a full member in good standing. The Assistant Treasurer shall have the authority to co-sign with the Treasurer in all matters of importance.

Section 2.9. The Board of Directors shall consist of a representative from each geographical area.

Section 2.10. The Executive Committee shall consist of Elected Officers and the Board of Directors.

Section 2.11. The Council shall meet at least twice a year and special meetings may be called by the President with approval of a majority of the council.

Section 2.12. In the event that the President and the President-Elect were to resign or be unable to act, the Executive Committee shall make a temporary appointment to the office of Presidency, thereby allowing time for an election to take place. The election shall be within one month of the resignation.

Section 2.13. Should the office of President-Elect become vacant prior to the election of new officers, this office shall remain vacant until the next election, and a new President and President-Elect shall be elected by the membership.

Section 2.14. In the event a vacancy should occur in any other elected or appointed office, the President shall make a temporary appointment to fill the vacancy until the next election.

ARTICLE III. COUNCIL

Section 3.1. The Council shall have general charge of the business affairs of the NMTT and all the property and monies received in the operation of the NMTT, approve annual budget and make rules and regulations as it shall deem necessary for the management and well being of the NMTT. Matters dealing with the routine operation of the NMTT and not specifically controlled by these Bylaws shall be the function of the Council. Decisions of the Council shall be determined by affirmative vote of the majority of the voting members present, there being a quorum present. Actions of the Council shall be reported to the membership by the President.

Section 3.2. A quorum shall consist of one-half of the voting membership of the Council. A quorum must be present before any action can be implemented. The presiding officer can vote as any other member when the vote is by ballot. In all other cases, the presiding officer is obliged to vote, but only when his vote may affect the outcome.

Section 3.3. The Council shall consist of the following voting members:

- (a) The Executive Committee
- (b) The NMTT's most recent past Presidents
- (c) Standing Committee Chairmen

Section 3.4. The Council shall meet at least twice a year before the annual business meeting. Interim meetings may be held at a time and a place decided by a majority of the Council, or by a petition of a quorum of the voting membership of the Council or by the President. A quorum must be present. Notice of any special Council meetings must be sent to each member of the Council (30) days prior to the date of the proposed meeting.
